Second Millennium, First Class 2000 Vignette

Arts High has maintained the tradition of bringing budding youth into her halls and commencing talented, creative and polished young men and women. Success has been the goal of Arts High since the 1900's. In the year 2000 it still meets and welcomes the most predominate challenges with dedication and hard work.

"Second Millennium, First Class"

By: Kaleena Berryman

We are the first class of the new millennium -
The class of unity, the class of style.
When someone says 2000 -
Everyone around can't help but smile.
We are the class of high expectations -
With dreams that never die.
If we are asked where we are going,-
"To the top!", is our reply.
We've grown over these four years -
Into people to be admired.
We've learned to build each other up -
And to strive for what we desire.
We've made a lasting impression -
That will change the face of time.
We've learned to strive for excellence -
And like diamonds, we shall shine.
We've overcome the obstacles -
That could keep us from being optimistic.
We learned to set standards -
Instead of being mere statistics.
The class of 2000 has no limitations -
No barriers, no blocks.
We keep our heads to the sky -
So our dreams can never stop.
Through the years we've bonded -
Not just as friends but family.
We've learned to except one another -
Together is all that we can be.
We are the prodigies and phenomenons -
The light through pain and sorrow.
We are the trendsetters of today -
And the leaders of tommorrow.
We are the descendants of royalty -
The individuals in a crowd.
Our goals are very simple -
To be our best and be it proud.
So if someone ever asks you, -
"Why will your legacy last?",
Just say, " Because were the class of 2000; -
Second Millennium, First Class."

"We are the class of unity, the class of style."

Faculty

Administration

As you hover on the brink of a new millennium, I hope you take some time to contemplate. There are three questions you should give thought to at this juncture in your life:

A. Who are some of the people and what are some of the events that assisted me in being here today?

B. What do I want to do with my life?

C. What would I like to accomplish with my future?

You are entering the adult world upon graduation from secondary school. The decisions made, by you, will hopefully be well thought out, and sound enough to build your future upon. We (Arts High School) have given you the support we were capable of. Now, we depend upon you to make those decisions vital to both your success and existence, responsibly, thoroughly, and intelligently. Those of us who have touched your life truly believe in you. You have shown us what you can do. You are gifted, and you are intelligent. You are strong and you are sensitive. We have faith that you will make a valuable contribution to the world.

It is always my pleasure to teach. I wish all the members of the class of 2000 success and contentment. My heart felt congratulations on this major accomplishment in your lives.

Sincerely,
Eleta J. Caldwell
Principal

Are you ready for the challenges ?????? You , the members of the class of 2000 represent a new beginning The first graduating class of the millennium of the 21st century. The charge to each of you is to go forth and utilize the education that you have obtained during your tenure at Arts High School. Take each lesson, each experience and each relationship and move to the next phase of your life knowing that you have a strong foundation to build upon.

As your teachers, we have had the opportunity to observe your academic, physical, emotional and social growth . We are confident that you have what it takes to be a success in whatever you pursue. Your education will always serve as your source of power. It will assist you in making decisions. It will assist you in understanding that without knowlegge an individual is poweless. You have the power!!!!!! You can meet the challenge!!!!!!

With love and pride, congratulations to each of you. I wish you all the best that life has to offer. Thank you for sharing a part of your life with me.

Department Chairpersons

Dear Seniors:
Now, after knowing most of you all your four years here I unite this farewell note to you. From classes of English to meetings in the Humanities Office you have amazed, amused, leafuddled, delighted, encouraged and bright my view of you and your future. Learn, live, be healthy and be brave, my millennium adults! It's been a journey I was honored to be on with you.

Ms. Patricia Curvin

I want to thank the class of 2000 for all their contributions to Arts High. It is rewarding for me to watch and experience the individual artistic growth of every student.

Mr. Louis Melchor

The Art Department's courses in drawing, painting, fashions, graphic design, ceramics and sculpture offer opportunities for the art majors to develop their potential in ways and means that are unequal elsewhere. Their accomplishments over the past four years attest to the fact that they know, "You are not rewarded for having talents. You're only rewarded for putting them to good use." I am confident that they - and the rest of the class of 2000 - will not only make a living through what they accomplish; but will also make a life through what they give.

Mrs. Nettie Thomas

The Science Department strives to prepare our students for successful college experience and beyond. We extend our congratulations to the class of 2000.

T.V. Communications Major

The T.V. Communications Major was an added phenomenon to Arts High School about 5 years ago, 1 year shy of the class of 2000. This is a very complicated major; it has a combination of dance, drama and vocal. It takes very talented students to use the many aspects that other majors use everyday to create one single production. They successfully entertained students and staff with each production they did. We also had the pleasure of listening to them each morning as they broadcast Good Morning Arts High and once in a while a commercial on holidays and special occasions. I especially commend the class of 2000, who has continuously displayed their talents in school and out.

Art Majors

Top:
Veda Dickson is displaying her very elaborate designs in fashion.

Senior Art Majors have gone through four years of learning many different methods of art. They went from drawing to silk screening, sculpture to computer graphics. They built up their talents and it shows in their work. Now that they are seniors, these art majors know their individual strengths in art and now has the chance to ambelish on them. These are very talented indiviuals and even after they graduate their work will show those that follow them just has talented they were.

Instrumental Majors

The Music Majors have always been very talented performers. They have grown so much since their freshman year. They have graced us so many times with many different forms of music, such as, jazz and clasical, R&B and urban. Now these seniors are on their way to becoming professional musicians, if they choose. They are going to leave behind a legacy that will encourage the classes behind them to be just as great as they were.

Drama Majors

Top:
Dance majors successfully portray images of African Americans during a time of segregation.

The Drama Majors were a very special part of Arts High School. They gave many meaningful and humorous performances time and time again. Some would say you could tell a drama major from a mile away. With their outgoing personalities, drama majors had the skill of turning a simple play into a spectacular event. These rising stars put a lot into their performances and it shows each time they do a monolog or play, especially the graduating seniors. You can expect to see them on T.V. or a Broadway play sometime in the near future.

The Dance Majors of Arts High have a very challenging major. It requires so much energy that dance majors don't have to take gym! Through the four years of being dancers, we have witnessed some amazing performances, each one better than the last. We have seen our senior dance majors mature into beautiful dancers. It was always a pleasure to look at one of their productions. They danced many different styles of dance, from classical to hip-hop, ballet to jazz. They did it all! I commend the dance majors of 2000, you will always be remembered.

Dance Majors

Vocal Majors

Top:
Karen is a prominent member of the vocal majors, her voice is simply beautiful!

The Vocal Majors of Arts High seranade their school with their beautiful voices. As they went through their four years in Arts High, the senior vocalists voices have vastly matured. Some of them came in singing only R&B to now have a knowledge of many forms of music, such as, Jazz, Opera and Classical. No style is out of their limit. Every year, the vocal majors are constantly requested to display their talents in numerous events. Their isn't a soul in Newark who hasn't heard of the talented voices the presidies in Arts High School. Though their time in Arts High School is about to end, the senior vocalist of 2000 will leave behind a legacy of being a very talented group of individuals.

"Hat Day 2000"

Bottom Right:

This underclassman is also sporting the cowgirl hat, this was a very popular look this year which proved to be very successful.

Hat day is an annual event for Arts High. The students of Arts High wear the craziest hats imaginable. This year might have been the wakiest with hats ranging from clown hats to cowgirls hats. In every class, there was school spirit, There were small hats and large hats, colorful hats and black and white hats. We had hats for all occasions. So, if you ever need to see a variety of hats, come to Arts High on Hat Day even though the best hat day has come and gone, Hat Day 2000!

African American Heritage Day

The rich tradition of African-American history was celebrated through music, dance and visual expressions.

Right: Veda Dickson and Victor Battle, together present the senior artwork as a part of the dance majors performance. African American Heritage Day presentation was a combination of all of the Arts High School majors.

On February 18, the junior dance majors performed an African dance and drama piece for the school. They showed us many different types of dance and music. They did an variety of humorus skits as well as dance routines. The production was also helped along by the senior art majors who displayed best works throughout the program. The art presentation was hosted by Veda Dickson and Victor Battle.

On this day the juniors showed us their creativity by performing a dance step. The production of this show was written and performed by the juniors with the help of some seniors here and there. It was a very good performance which leaves the school with great expectations for the juniors performances when they become seniors.

Above: These school girls look like their feeling the rhythm of the school house rock!

Above: Don't you think those girls are "Living La Vida Loca" in those way too short dresses?

The "Winter Fair"

The Winter Fair '99' was a great success and alot of fun!

"The Winter Fair brings joy and excitement every year, especially during school when the students and teachers prepared for this annual event."

Calenders! Pillows! Mirrors! All you can buy before the Christmas holiday. Art majors along, with their teachers, continued the tradition of selling their talents to raise money for their department. With elaborate designs and a joyous atmosphere, the Art Department, with the help of the Music and Dance Department, successfully raised money for the Art Department. The music majors played all time favorite Christmas jingle's and jazz ensembles. The underclassmen dance majors gracefully performed a well-known dance peice while the audience of students, teachers, and parents appreciatively looked on. The night fun and the spirit of Christmas. This was the Winter Fair of the century and it will be remembered as one of the best.

"The first Winter Ball of the new millennium!"

By: Khairia Greenlee

The Winter Ball of 2000 has come and gone but it's memory will last forever.

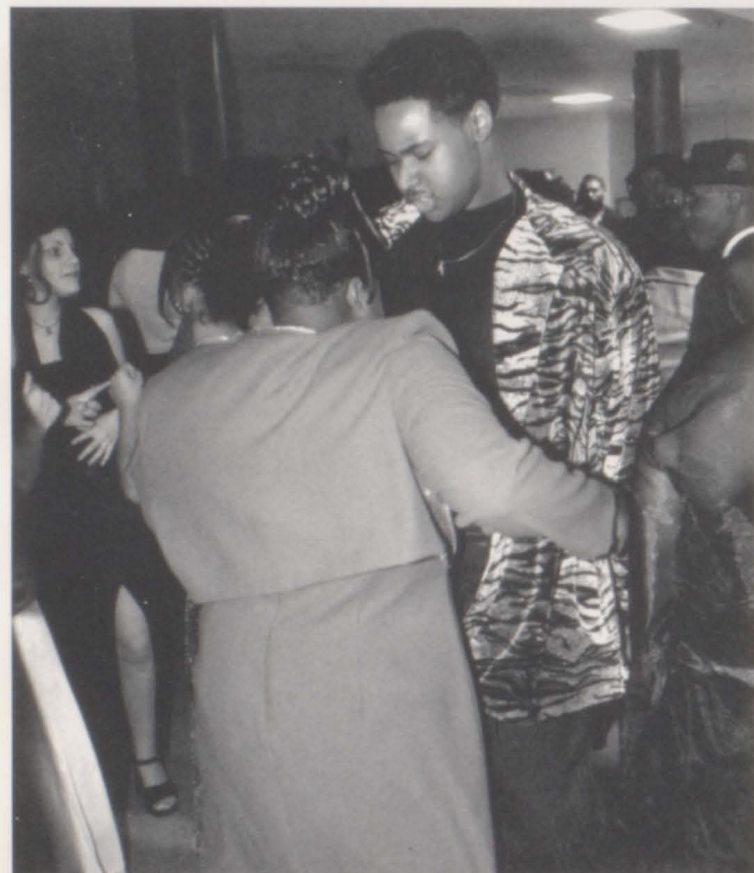

The first Winter Ball of the new millennium was a big success. There was great music, food and a joyous atmosphere. Students from all classes were elegantly dressed. Traditionally, the Winter Ball is held around the Valentine's Day holiday so young couples danced the night away looking into each others eyes. Friends enjoyed the night together, some for the last time. The student council, with the guidance of Mrs. Dougland, worked very hard this year to make this winter ball special and all their hard work was not in vain. The Winter Ball of 2000 was one of the best Winter Balls in Arts High's history.

Top Right:

An Elegant Evening

"Underclassmen appreicated the Arts High annual event ."

This year the underclassmen did their thing at the Winter Ball! They were dancing from the time they walked in until it was time to leave. There was no shy ones that night. They all had a lot of fun and really appreciated this annual event for Arts High.

Bottom Right:

These two dance partners look good together. Hint, Hint!!!

Music

from down under

On September 15, 1999, the students and the faculty of Arts High received a powerful taste of the land down under. In the Arts High auditorium, a young and talented group of Australian children exceptionally entertained the audience. Undoubtedly, we learned a great deal about the culture of the Australia people, thereby gaining an unsurpressable respect for them. With great dignity and pride for their land, the children graced our stage with their wonderful voices and well rehearsed dance moves. The ages ranged from 9-17, and each were very skilled beyond their years. One thing is for sure, they were definetly the friendliest children we ever had the pleasure of meeting. They were taught to "Bling, Bling", and how to get their "Bills Paid", and of course how to represent 2g's to the fullest. We will definetly remember the group that made us "Feel Like A Woman", and gave us a sense of why they are so proud of their country, Australia.

AN AUSTRALIAN NIGHT

The evening of the night was a most successful one. The Australian Advanced Choir, under the direction of their conductor, performed a number of songs which were well received by the audience. The Australian host introduced from music down under.

An Animator's Story

The director of Tooniversal makes a visit to his alma mater

To the immediate right:
Ron Merk gives interview to Arts High's own Scope newspaper Advisor, Dr. Daniel Heisey and Scope newspaper writer, Damaqu Maronvil, while eating his lunch.

He's an alumnus of Arts High School, who graduated in '62. Ron Merk was an Art Major, 37 years ago. He later became an animation director for Tooniversal Studios for six years.

With a little bit of help from his parents, Ron was able to open up a company in Newark, which imported Children's films in Europe. His first film was a live version of Pinocchio in 1968.

Ron Merk became an Animation Director in '83. He had the opportunity to work with Ken O'Conner, who produced the Snow White and Fantasia project. "I had no contacts and I was lucky to meet people almost by accident. Of course what opens the doors is great talent and nothing is handed to you in this world."

Arts High Cheerleaders

"The Jaguar Spirit"

By: Mr. Robert Fuller

Our active and attractive cheerleaders helped us throughout the year to victory. Game after game, their spirit and talent was aroused. Their green and white uniforms never seemed to stop jumping around as they cheered vigorously for the basketball players. The job of being a cheerleader is not an easy one. It's a very hard, energetic job. Our cheerleaders demonstrated poise and showmanship throughout the school year.

Earning Respect

This Basketball season has been a great success and a great experience. As a Senior, I've learned to take the responsibility to step up as a leader. This season has brought many lost individuals together as a unified team.

By working together, they have learned the true meaning of teamwork. Perhaps that is the reason for our improvement. Although we are not State Champs, we have shown people that the "Lady Jaguars" are going to "Make Noise".

Making The State Tournament

Making the State Tournament was on their minds and their minds were set. They were determined to win it all. Many obstacles have come their way but they have overcome those obstacles to be seeded #6 in the State Tournament.

The Jaguars battled through all competition and came out victorious. The Jaguars' seven game win streak gave them a first round "Home" game, which is pretty impressive.

The overall record for the Jags is 18-7. This record leads them into the State Tournament game with tremendous confidence and with a home record of 7-1, they are sure not to let their fans down.

My parents, pedagogues and cronies, I thank you. I'd like to commend the custodians, security guards and cafeteria staff, those of whom often go unnoticed for their deeds. It's rare that one has this kind of attention, so with that being said: "When life give you poop, make poop juice." To those of you looking back at this some years hence with feelings of nostalgia, remember me not so much for my talents but for me; that weird kid with the black nail polish".

Tonisha Burnett

Giving all praise to God who is the head of my life and from which all blessings flow. Thank you mom & dad for being there for me and raising me to be an intelligent young woman. Thank you to my sisters Lashonda & Jelisa, I love ya'll. Congratulations to the class of 2000.

Senior Class Advisor

The Class of 2000 is leading the way to meet the challenges and the opportunities of the new millennium. From the moment you entered Arts High School as freshmen, you knew you were special. You felt the attention from your teachers, your families, and your community, and this only spurred on you. As individuals and as a class you've experienced strong emotions, painful losses, and brilliant victories. You have grown into independent, thoughtful adults and have come together as a supportive student body. You certainly have a reason to smile and celebrate as you conclude your four years at Arts.
Leslie D. Pearlson

Senior Class Advisor

I have immensely enjoyed my position as senior class advisor along with Mrs. Pearlson. It has been a pleasure to work with such insightful, creative and bright students as those who make up the senior class of 2000. I have to give special thanks to the class officers who made my life so much easier, but especially to Khairia for bearing with me during my momentary lapses of reason and hanging in there through everything. Your a doll! I want to wish all my seniors the very best for the future and I know that they will accomplish all that they put their minds to.

Millennium Day

Top Right:

Lower Left:

This lovely couple is sporting their millennium head gear. Tukia is rocking the stylish 2000 mask while Dante is chillin' with the bangin' millennium hat!

Upper Left:

(Left-Right: Samyyah, Tiffany, & Kimberly) are chillin' with their 2000 eye wear. Looking good girls.

Lower Right:

Top Left:

Below:

Above:
(Left-Right: Crystal and Angel, Bottom: Tasha) are true 2G seniors.

The first and last Y2K Day!

"We are the 2nd millennium, 1st class and no other can compare"

By: Khairia Greenlee

The class of 2000 is bringing in the millennium with a bang! This year's first and only Millennium Day was big success. The seniors of Arts High were sporting their millennium gear. They showed everyone that they are proud to be in the class of 2G's. From tube tops to 2000 glasses, each senior shows their own unique style of millennium wear. One thing they do have in common is their love for their year. The millennium spirit runs through the whole class as well as a sense of togetherness. We are showing everyone that we are the 2nd millenium, 1st class and no other class can compare.

Upper Left:

What a nice couple! Nichole and Dennis show that switching sides is not such a bad thing. Pigeons and scrubs can get along.

Upper Right:

Look at these scrubs! Thank God that this is only a Switch Day picture. What would happen if these scrubs roamed the street!

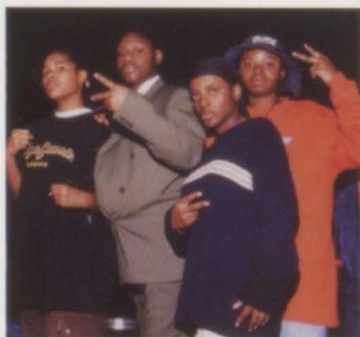

Upper Left:

(Left-Right: Dennis, Jermaine, Mahist, Joseph and Dashawn), show that being Pigeons is not that bad. Show your stuff guys.

Immediate Right:

(Left-Right: Crystal, Quitta, Khairia and Karen), show that even in their scrub gear they still have 2G love.

Lower Right:

Latif, better known as Latifah, and Keri, better known as Kern, hug, kiss and make-up after arguing.

Below:

What metamorphosis did Daniel go through last night? He probably woke up with pigeonitis.

Below:

Kaleenah shows that even though she is a scrub, our class president can still afford gold teeth

Pigeons or Scrubs? Switch Day

By: Treniese Sampson

On October 15 the c/o 2000 represented hard with some of the sexiest females and males in the city. We took our theme from the famous rappers, Sporty Thieves and TLC.. The females (scrubs) gave up their best friends clothes and shoes to rock some of their boyfriends and brothers clothes. The males (pigeons) gave up looking ghetto fabulous to wearing short minnie skirts with high healed shoes. We saw a variety of gold plated teeth, hairy legs, messed up mustaches, press on nails and anything else you can imagine

One thing is for sure, 2000 surely had the best Switch Day of the century!!!

Upper Left:

(Left-Right: C'wan and Charisma) C'wan obviously loves his role as a pigeon.

Upper Right:

Lower Left:

Above:

Arleny Rodriguez, also known as Al Rodriguez uses her pimpin' side to get Johnny Mendez also known as Johanna Mendez.

Above:

Tylene (Tyrone) Williams, Gilbert (Gilberta) White, and Danielle (Danny) Thompson all show that coming out of the closet is not that bad. "Switching into a girl was not that bad", says Gilbert White.

Pyscho Sex Changes!!

These students are just as bad the Jerry Springer Show. Dashaun, Shairah, and Alina show thier wild sides.

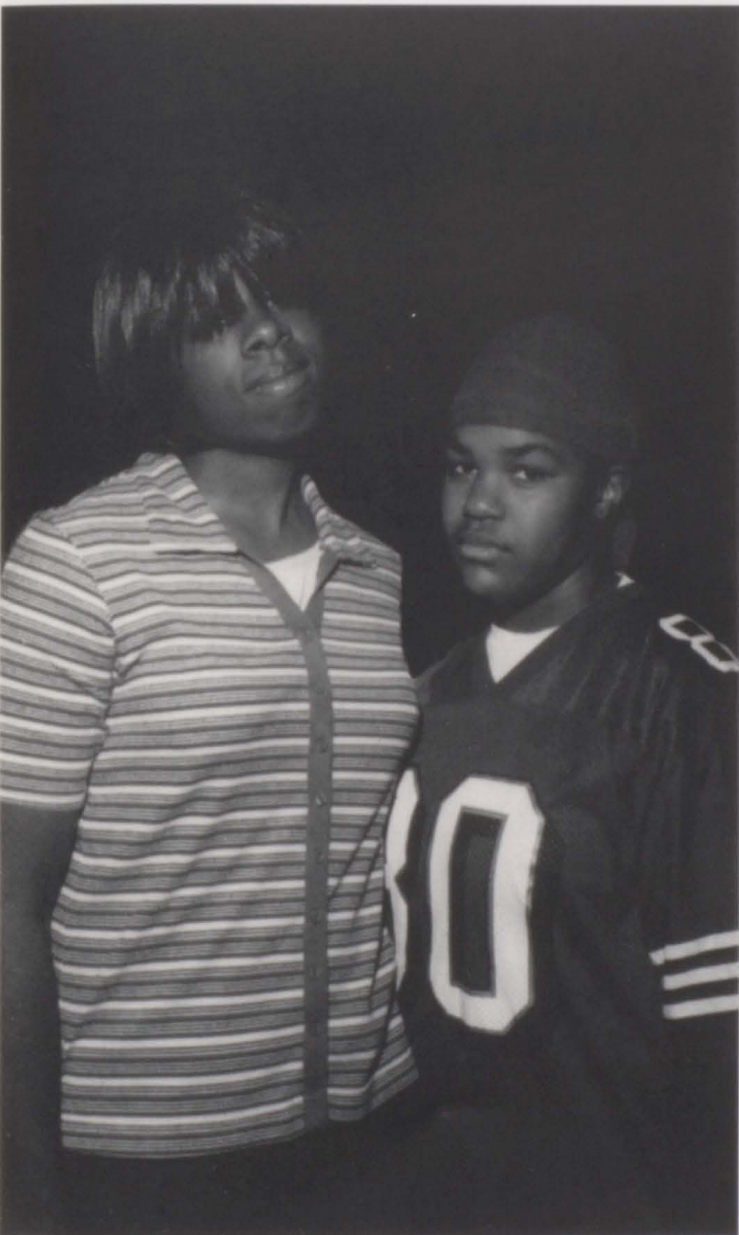

Old School Grandmothers?

Dawayne, Charles, and Mike chilli in thier grandmama gear show that being a grand mother at that age is pretty cool. Charles I don't think grandmothers wear Tim. Grandma Mike should perk up a little.

Group of Cool Gals and Guy.
Tha Class of 2000 representing that Switch Day Spirit.

Who's looking at who?
Karen, Charles, and Quitta looking at the crazy sex changes that are just eye popping.

Smile for the Camera.
Raheem (Raheema) and Natasha (Nate Dog) are showing girls can be taller than guys. Next time Raheema should pin her weave in a pony tail. A pretty face should be shown.

Thugged Out!
Shanette, Temeshia, Charleene, and Charisma show how thugs pose for pictures. These girls looked rougher than some of the High School Seniors!

Below: Naj, Quiana, and Charisma show that they've got it together. Do you see the coordination?

Right: Hay, Jerome you got my money?

Is That a Senior or Celebrity?

2gz "Bling Bling" into the new millennium!

By: Jermain Majette

On November 10, 1999, the class of 2000 turned Arts High into Hollywood. There was many celebrities at this all out bash. We had 702, Scary Spice, Erika Badu, Jerome (the pimp), Juvi & lil' Wayne, Jennifer Lopez, Tamia, the Lox, Treach, Ace Ventura, Tha' Brat, Slim Shaddy, and many others to be announced. All the stars and celebrities came out together for a little party. Brain dead Slim Shaddy came with his mind on Da Brat and Mary J. Blidge. 702 was also there looking ready to do a concert. Every one came and had a good time. Many laughed and shared quality times. Every one showed love and the atmosphere was full of joy. As we roamed the halls, people spoke, smiled, waved, and screamed asking for autographs. It was nothing but fans showing much love to their role models and the people who inspire them. The goodtimes were remembered by the use of kodak. This party showed the real meaning of "A Kodak Moment."

Above: Eryka, Scary Spice, and Brittany don't have nothin' on us!

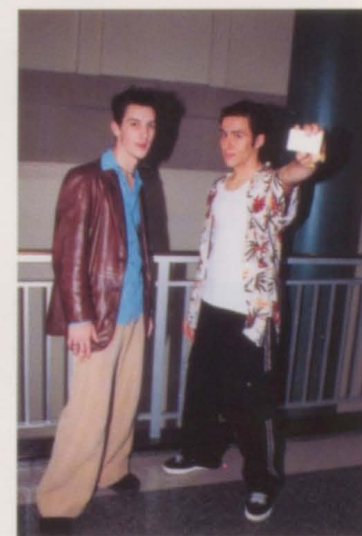

Celebrity Day 2000

"Celebrities of tommorrow dress up like celebrities of today!"

Left: Tina, Jennifer, and Tamia, don't we make you speechless?

Below: Ooh, Treach and the Lox, yall make me wanna...!

Top Right:

Lil Kim and Kelly Price are the two divas of the music industry.

Lower Right:

Is that Penny Marshall and Lauryn Hill or Dacia and Christina.

Upper Left:

Isn't this a strange combination; Cedric the Entertainer, Monica and Mr. Roger. This should be very interesting.

Middle Right:

These seniors are not seniors today. Today they are Busta Rhymes, Allen Iverson and Fat Joe.

Bottom Right:

Montel Jordan is looking swave as usual. What is the rock doing!

Upper Left:

(Left-Right: Lillianette and Shantel) really look like the lovely couple, Jennifer Lopez and Puff Daddy.

Seniors or Celebrities?

Upper Right:

Isn't this a kodak moment! Foxy Brown, Faith Evans and Aaliyah smile for the cameras.

Upper Left:

Sharon is Selena for the day and looking good. Keep it up Selena.

Lower Right:

Everyone vague for the cameras. Lauryn Hill, Nikky Parker and Kim Parker, from the hit show The Parkers are posing for the cameras.

Twin Day 2000

"Friends or twins?"

Top Right:

Top Left:

Arleny and Alina were the most unique twins of us all. I love your style girls!

Bottom Left:

Quiana and Najaah are adorable twins. They are wearing their matching Coogi hats and their both talking on their cell phones.

Bottom Right:

Quiana and Murjani really look like twins! Are you girls sure your just friends and not related?

Top Left:
(Left-Right: Joseph and Dewayne) are The Sophisticated Gents for today. They have got to be twins or else, that's scary.

Top Right:
David and Ceasar are twins to the "T". They could really pass as brothers.

Bottom Left:
Treniese and Renee' are twins for the day. Lookin' good 2G!

"Twin Day 2000"

By: Renaldo Johnson and
Kimberly Hinnant

New is always better, and the class of "2000" is continuously being creative. On Twin Day, seniors paired up with their bestfriend or friends and dressed a like. Being that the seniors here are so close, a lot of us dressed up in groups. For some, this is a very special day because it gives them the opportunity to have the brother or sister they never had. We hope Twin Day will be a lasting tradition at Arts High but the Twin Day of "2000" will always be remembered as one of the best and most unique.

Memories

This book of memories was completed by desktop publishing.

On September 13th, the inhabitants of room 407, better known as the Graphics Arts Class, began to breath life into one hundred twenty eight blank sheets of paper. The work begins with a series of interviews. The interviews are turned into articles and articles are given headings and headings are given subheadings.

Pictures are cropped. A highly efficient staff used extraordinary programs such as pagemaker, photoshop and illustrator. Illustrious memories are born and forever captured.

Special Thanks: Treniese Sampson, Lateefah Ruff, Kaleenah Berryman, Renaldo Johnson, Kimberly Hinnant, Sakinah Allen, Kern Bruce, Daniel Breda, Shantale Bridges, Damaqu Mernovil

Congratulations to the class of 2000. It has been a tremendous pleasure working with you. Your class exemplifies the great, rich tradition of Arts High School.

Four years at Arts High has provided you with enrichment and experienced, learning and growth. Now it is up to you to continue on a path that begun for you, four years ago.

Continue to shine as you can. Carry on the traditions as Arts High Alumnus.

Mr. Robert A. Fuller
Yearbook Advisor

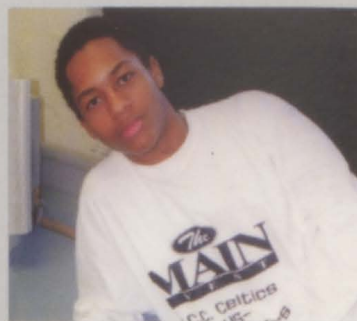

It has been a great experience & challenge working on this collection of memories. It is a difficult task trying to please over 120 students but we have done our best. You all have challenged me in so many ways that I believe I have become a better person, thank you. So, as we go on our separate paths on this journey of life, we can always look back & remember. Good luck & God bless.

Khairia D. Greenlee
Editor -In- Chief

Congratulations to all who are reading this yearbook, because you have earned the right. You got past the obstacle that made you responsible young men and women. You are on your way, but it doesn't stop here, it goes on and on. Be the best at whatever you do because there's nothing you can't do.

Jihad Wilson
Layout Designer

I would like to thank all the students that were patient and comprehensible for me taking their pictures. I would also like to thank Mrs. Boland, Mr. K., Ms. Cutler and Mr. Fuller, for being there for me when I needed help with something. I would like to thank my parents for tolerating me these four years of high school and especially to my mother who is there through thick and thin.

Cesar Moutela
Photographer

Tommorrow, who knows what the future may hold. In the past four years I've learned that with dedication & patience, good things will eventually come your way. So, for all the future leaders from the class of 2000, remember that patience is a virtue & with that in mind, many great things will come your way. I would like to say it was a great pleasure & honor working with Mr. Fuller and the yearbook staff- thank you for not giving up on me during my time of seperation. I wish everyone the best. May God bless you in your road to success.

Prince Jermain Majette
Photographer/ Pagemaker

It has been a pleasure working in the Graphic Art class. I not only learned a great deal of what a Mac computer is capable to do but I also learned some of the programs that were associated with doing the yearbook itself. I have to say that I really enjoyed working with the yearbook staff and helping to contribute something to remember for the "Class of 2000."

Mr. & Mrs. Millennium

The first Mr. & Mrs. Millennium Contest was a great success that grossed over $2,000 dollars for the senior class. All of the contestants put forth great dedication. This contest was not expected to do as well as it did but what a surprise when seniors began handing in hundreds of dollars! From the smallest amount to the largest, we appreciate each contestant generous contributions as well as those who sponsored them. On behalf of the senior class and the senior class advisory board, we thank you for making this contest a big success.

The class of 2000 would like to present this year's Mr. & Mrs. Millennium, Tyre' Johnson and Swiyyah Fareed. Tyre' raised $151.00 and Swiyyah raised a much appreciated $600.00! These two seniors exhibited the true values of being members of the class of 2000. Thank you for your tremendous contributions!!!

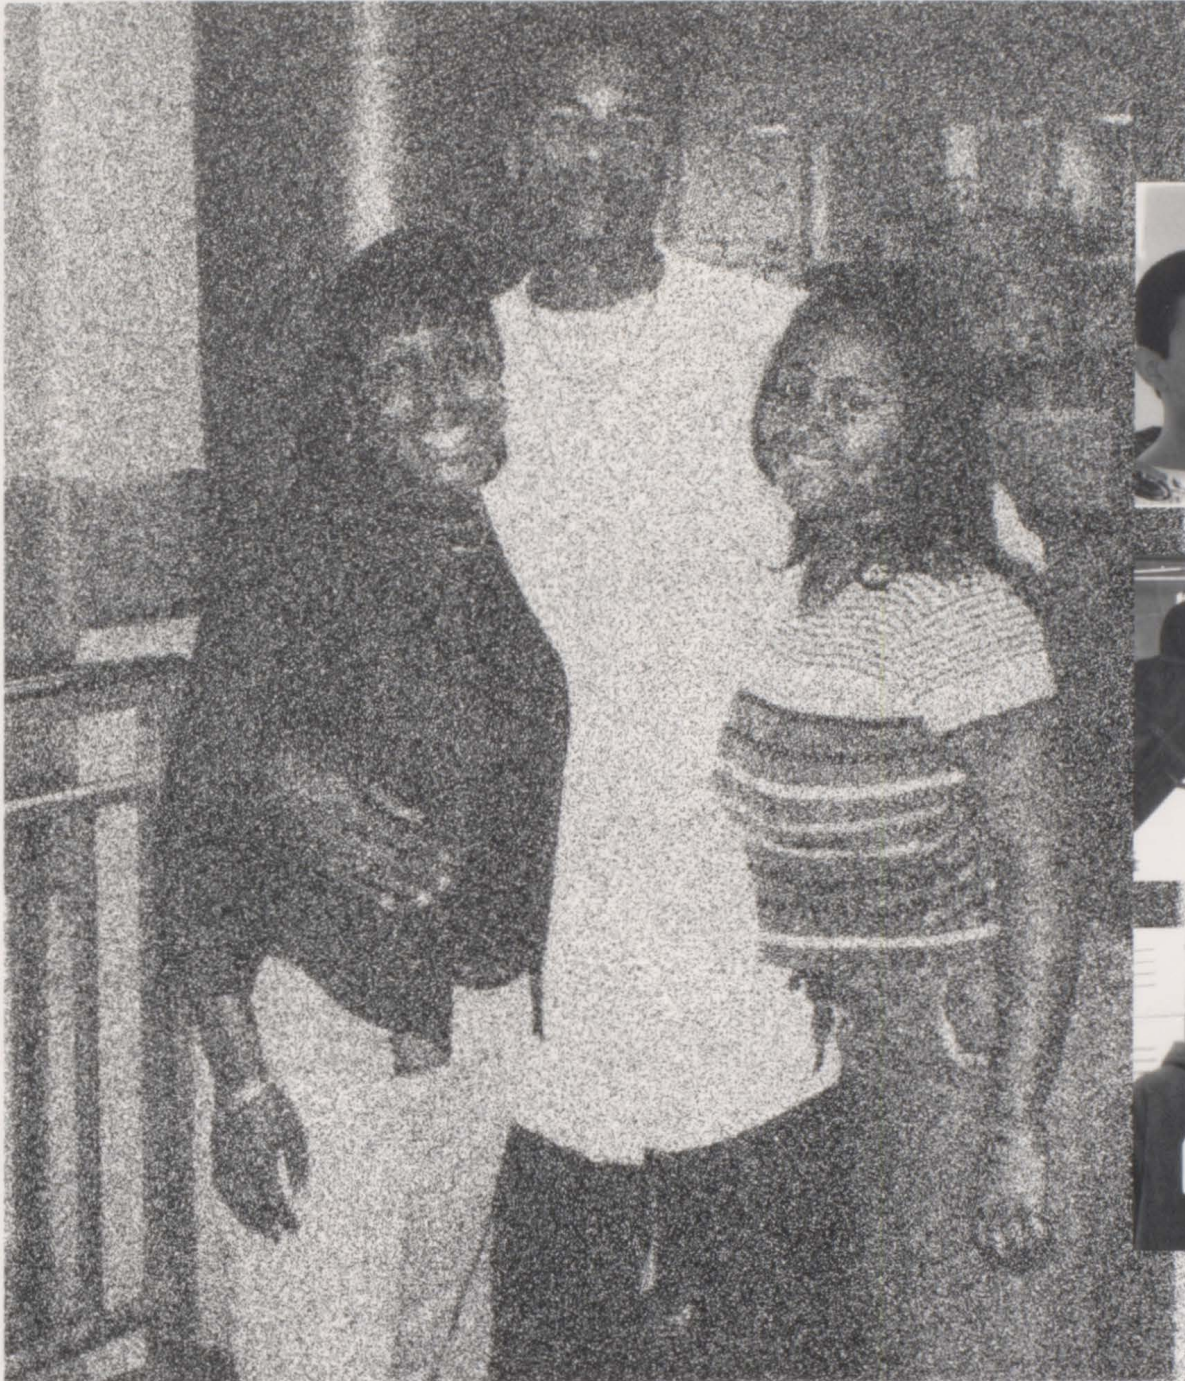

Though Tyre' and Swiyyah are Mr. and Mrs. Millennium, many other students also helped make this contest a big success. We would like to acknowledge them and to also thank them for their great contributions.
